

A top-down view of a rectangular room with a brown floor and light green walls. The room has four windows: one on each wall. The windows on the left and right walls are tall and narrow, while the windows on the top and bottom walls are short and wide. The room is surrounded by a light green border with stylized green plants along the edges.

